

	Standard	Description	Associated with the following EUROWA Courses	Availability
	Part A – Standard Operating Procedure (External)	The External SOP provides detail on how a Requesting Party can mobilise EUROWA experts and equipment 24/7 to complement the capability or capacity of a local wildlife response.	Team Member Course	Public
	Part A - Standard Operating Procedure (Internal)	The Internal SOP provides detail on how EUROWA experts and equipment can mobilise 24/7 to complement the capacity of a local wildlife response. The SOP provides detail for EUROWA organisations on operational procedures in the different response phases, routines and tasks, forms and templates, health and safety, etc.	Team Member Course	Available only to the EUROWA Network and trained EUROWA Responders
	Part B - Animal Care during an Oiled Wildlife Response	Part B is the Network's joint protocol for oiled seabird rehabilitation. The protocol describes animal care methods during an oiled wildlife response and explains rehabilitation processes.	Advanced Responder Course Specialist Module Packages Veterinarian Specialist Course Basic Veterinarian Course	Public (requires login) . Available also to the EUROWA Network and trained EUROWA Responders
	Part C - Facility Design Handbook	Contains basic information on the design and set up of facilities and the design, furnishing, equipping and staffing of the various departments and support units, the total of which provide the operational parts of a wildlife rehabilitation facility. An informative document for laymen and also a reference document in the education of Specialists and Managers.	Specialist Module Packages Veterinarian Specialist Course Operations Manager Course Section Head course	Available only to the EUROWA Network and trained EUROWA Responders
	Part D - Equipment Handbook	Provides an overview of the equipment that is currently stockpiled by the EUROWA network. The information presented here has been drawn from the EUROWA Database in which the details of each object in the stockpiled is registered and kept up to date.	Specialist Module Packages Section Head Course	Available only to the EUROWA Network and trained EUROWA Responders
	Part E - Response Concepts Handbook	Handbook for in the field/on-site use, including key technical concepts and guidelines. It aims at presenting some valuable insights from experience and previous projects and activities. These have developed into a range of response concepts that can be applied by managers and response groups as a shared resource in their aim to make a wildlife response more effective and cost-efficient.	Operations Manager Course	Available only to the EUROWA Network and trained EUROWA Responders

	Standard	Description	Associated with the following EUROWA Courses	Availability
	Part F – Facility Management Handbook	Provides details on how to set up and manage a wildlife rehabilitation centre as a conceptualised facility. The document provides guidance on issues such as staffing, how to effectively manage a facility, performance under different scenarios and managing facility operations abroad.	Specialist Module Packages Operations Manager Course Section Head course Large-scale Facility Management Course	Available only to the EUROWA Network and trained EUROWA Responders
	Part G – Basic Oiled Wildlife Response Manual	Designed to help teams of wildlife responders and volunteers to understand and implement field wildlife response operations. Part 1 includes background information, general principles of oiled wildlife response, presentation of wildlife response actions and tasks which can be undertaken by volunteers. Part 2 contains technical sheets to be used in the field and on the work floor.	Basic Responder Course Advanced Responder Course Operations Manager Course Basic Veterinarian course	Available only to the EUROWA network and trained EUROWA responders
	EUROWA Personnel, Work Floor Functions and Job Descriptions	Summarises data from the EUROWA Database on trained responders and their current levels, plus job descriptions for roles on the work floor (BASIC Responder, ADVANCED Responder, etc.). The document also describes specific roles of responders on the work floor (BASIC Prewash, SPECIALIST Dry, SECTION HEAD Pools Release, MANAGER Field ops, etc.).	All	Available only to the EUROWA Network
	EUROWA Training Portfolio	Summarises data from the EUROWA Database on all course packages that are currently available under the EUROWA banner. The portfolio is presented per work floor level and provides an overview of material presented, skill labs and exercises that have been developed for each specific level.	All	Available only to the EUROWA Network